in view of the extreme difficulty the Departmental Attorneys are experiencing with USA WILLIAM A. MEADOWS, JR. MEADOWS, concerning the granting of immunity, has taken a very adamant and seemingly unrealistic approach to this matter. Further trouble is expected in other cases to be brought before the FGJ in Miami in connection with the granting of immunity in gambling type cases. MEADOWS' concerted efforts in this regard could prove to be very detrimental to the interests of the Miami Division in their quest to develop more prosecutive cases in IGA matters.

It is noted that in the past several months the Miami Division has worked very closely with Departmental Attorneys [redacted] and [redacted] The success that Miami has enjoyed recently re IGA matters can be attributed in part to this relationship. It is quite evident that USA MEADOWS does not appreciate the presence of the Departmental Attorneys in his district, and this difficulty between the Department and MEADOWS could prove to be very injurious to the IGA program of the Miami Division.

The above is submitted for the info of the Bureau, in view of a problem that does exist and seemingly will continue to be a detriment to the best interests of the Bureau.

2) NICK AMATO, former employee of MSNS, was interviewed on 2/14/66. He related he was employed in the capacity of a clerk from 10/65 to the date of arrest and raid at MSNS on 11/28/65. He stated that because of his limited knowledge in this field, he was only permitted to give out football and basketball scores, and had never given out any line info. He stated he received his orders from SAMUEL GREEN, although GREEN was receiving his orders from ROSENTHAL. He was completely cooperative in this interview, and it is felt would be a good witness at time of trial.

3) [redacted] Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, confidentially advised on 2/15/66, that SAMUEL GREEN had applied for additional phone service at his residence. This matter will be closely followed, and liaison will be maintained with the AG's Office, Miami, Fla., re possible removal of phones for illegal purposes.

Enclosed for the FBI Laboratory are one copy each of the Weekly Basketball and Hockey Schedules Numbers 12 and 13. Also enclosed are one copy each of the Weekly Basketball Schedules Numbers 14 and 15.

It is noted that beginning with Weekly Basketball and Hockey Schedule Number 8, the format for college basketball games was changed. Prior to Number 8, there were five blanks opposite the particular games. Inasmuch as college basketball is played in halves, by necessity you would not need more than three spaces. The prior arrangement was obviously designed for gambling and betting purposes.

It is noted on Weekly Basketball Schedule Number 14 that Multiple Sports News Service is now accepting orders for the "Weekly Baseball Journal." UACB, Miami will obtain two copies weekly of this journal.

Los Angeles Division under the above caption is investigating an alleged meeting which occurred in Palm Springs, Calif., during October, 1965. The alleged meeting was to discuss $200,000 worth of bets that RUBY LAZARUS had "stiffed" while in partnership with the above-mentioned individuals. Records verify that this group met at the Canyon Club Inn, Palm Springs, Calif.

Prior investigation under the caption JOHN PROKOS, aka., ETAL. ITWI; ITAR. OO: MIAMI, reflected that [redacted] [redacted] Montreal, Quebec, Canada, was a bookmaker who utilized Montreal phone [redacted]

A review of long distance phone calls for this number during the month of October, 1965, reflected that the telephone number of MSNS and the home phone number of FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL was called on several occasions between 10/16 and 10/17/65, from Palm Springs, Calif.

A further review of long distance phone calls charged to telephone number [redacted] in Montreal, Canada, tends to show that ELLIOT PAUL PRICE, nation-wide gambling figure from the Boston, Mass. area, was utilizing a credit card issued to the above number in order to carry out his bookmaking activities. It is further suggested in a review of these calls that PRICE or a representative of his bookmaking office made calls from Palm Springs, Calif., to Miami, Fla., utilizing this credit card.

Discussions were held with AUSA [redacted] at Los Angeles on 2/11 and 16/66, to determine when prosecutive action could be taken against [redacted] has now indicated a willingness to institute Grand Jury Proceedings against [redacted] in April, 1966. He stated he would like to obtain a copy of the indictment in the FRANK ROSENTHAL, et. al case at Miami for possible guidance in preparation of an indictment against [redacted] [redacted] stated there are four spearate avenues of prosecution he would pursue in the Grand Jury hearing.

The first possibility exists in the relationship of [redacted] of Minneapolis, during the football and basketball seasons of 1963-64. [redacted] admitted to Agents in January, 1964, that he was then receiving the weekly schedules from [redacted] operated by [redacted] in Minneapolis and using them to prepare his schedules. The Laboratory verified this by determining that the schedules prepared by [redacted] and [redacted] were lithographic reproductions. [redacted] stated he was seriously considering including [redacted] in the indictment with [redacted] if possible.

The second possibility is the relationship between [redacted] and FRANK ROSENTHAL and the MSNS, Miami, regarding [redacted] furnishing the master for printing the MSNS publication and his receiving the line from ROSENTHAL.

The third possibility is the relationship between [redacted] and Seattle bookmaker [redacted] et al, who have used [redacted] service. [redacted] stated he would very much like to call [redacted] before the Federal Grand Jury providing the Seattle trial has been held at that time. He is also considering if this would not interfere with the proceedings in Seattle.

The fourth possibility is the relationship between [redacted] and [redacted] Portland bookmaker. [redacted] stated he would very much like to offer [redacted] immunity before the Federal Grand Jury. He further advised it would materially assist if Portland Agents could show from surveillance logs that [redacted] was using the public telephone in the lobby of the Terminal Sales Building, 1220 SW Morrison St., Portland, at times that would coincide with telephone records showing calls made from that phone to the telephone of [redacted]

Baltimore

The files of the Baltimore Office reflect that [redacted], aka [redacted] the husband of [redacted] is the subject of investigation captioned [redacted] aka, etal, ITAR - GAMBLING, OO: BALTIMORE.

[redacted] was prominently mentioned in an investigation of the distribution of football pool cards in the Washington, D. C. area during 1963.

In the Fall of 1965 information was received that [redacted] was receiving 20,000 football pool cards per week for distribution.

In order not to jeopardize the current investigation, recent information received regarding the [redacted] alleged gambling activity has not been disseminated to the [redacted] regarding the alleged gambling activities of her husband.

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date February 10, 1966

ALVIN WEISBERG, who currently resides at 65100 Large Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was interviewed at the Office of Departmental Attorney [redacted] U. S. Post Office Building, 300 N. E. First Avenue. The interview was conducted in the presence of Departmental Attorney [redacted]

WEISBERG was advised that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to counsel and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements would be made during the course of this interview.

He stated that he had been in the employment of Multiple Sports News Service (MSNS) from August, 1963, to April 13, 1965. He was hired by FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL in the capacity of a clerk and was paid initially $1.25 per hour. At the end of his employment he was being paid $375 per month plus a Christmas bonus.

He further advised that ROSENTHAL was the man in charge of MSNS and gave all orders. He said that STANLEY GREEN, although enjoying the title of President, did not have any power in this position. WEISBERG said that GREEN had a very limited knowledge of sports and could not operate such a business without the experience of FRANK ROSENTHAL.

He said his duties as clerk consisted of answering the phone; giving "line" information to customers by way of an identifying code number; reading information from the Western Union sports ticker; picking up money from various individuals in the Miami area who subscribe to the "line" service put out by MSNS. In this regard he said that he made weekly pickups of money at the Sea Gull Hotel, Miami Beach; Alfie's Sundries, Miami Beach; and the Athens Cafe, in Miami. Also included in his duties was making certain long distance phone calls to out-of-state customers with current "line" information.

On 1/31/66 at Miami, Florida File # Miami 165-346

by SA [redacted] kr Date dictated 2/4/66

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

WEISBERG reflected that all customers receiving "line" information from MSNS were either bookmakers or bettors. He added that no one else besides these groups of individuals would need the information given out. The "line" information, according to WEISBERG, consisted of a point spread in regard to football and basketball while in baseball a "pitching line" was given out. He also added that a hockey "line" was given out to special customers and this was in terms of pucks.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 2/23/66

NICK F. AMATO, who resides at 2600 Northwest 206th Street, was interviewed at his residence.

He advised that he had been an employee of Multiple Sports News Service from October 1965 to November 28, 1965. His capacity was that of a clerk and he was paid at the rate of $2.00 per hour.

AMATO advised that he obtained his job through a friend of his wife who is now married to SAMUEL GREEN. He identified this individual as [redacted] He said that both [redacted] through this relationship he was introduced to GREEN.

He stated that due to a heart condition he had been hospitalized at Jackson Hospital in Miami and during the month of October 1965 was in a recuperative period. Any work that he did was by necessity of a non-taxing nature. He indicated that his job at Multiple Sports News Service consisted of answering the telephones and reporting scores to individuals that called on the telephone and identified themselves with customer numbers. He stated that there were approximately 20 to 25 different account numbers which were provided to him by SAMUEL GREEN. He said that due to his inexperience in this field, he was not allowed to read the Western Union Sports Ticker to the customers or give out line information. He stated his working hours were based on the times of athletic contests being played on a particular day. He indicated that during his employment he was giving out football and basketball scores.

He also indicated that on occasion he delivered the Multiple Sports News publications to Alfie's Sundries, Miami Beach; 79th Street Newsstand, and the Athens Cafe, Miami.

AMATO stated that he received his orders from SAMUEL GREEN although it was very apparent to him that GREEN took his orders from FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL. He reflected that he did not get along personally with ROSENTHAL as he seemed to be a very "cold fish" and did not seem to trust AMATO. He said that different individuals visited ROSENTHAL at the office of Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, but none of these were familiar to him.

AMATO stated that account numbers [redacted] were familiar to him as customer numbers although he never did know any of the individuals that called in for scores. He further indicated that he was given no special instructions as to the handling of particular customers although he was told that in order to give out scores to an individual calling, he must identify himself with a number.

In conclusion, AMATO stated that he had never been mixed up with any gambling organization or gambling figures and quit his employment at Multiple Sports News Service when the FBI arrested SAMUEL GREEN and FRANK ROSENTHAL. He indicated a willingness to cooperate in any way possible with the FBI and reiterated that he had nothing to hide concerning his employment with this business.

GENERAL ACTIVITY

On January 4, 1966, [redacted] Chief Investigator, Florida State Racing Commission, advised the Chiefs of Security at all Florida pari-mutuel installations that SAM GREEN and FRANK ROSENTHAL should not be allowed on any Florida pari-mutuel installation. This directive was based on the arrests by the FBI charging these individuals with the interstate transportation in aid of racketeering and interstate transmission of wagering information.

B.) PERMANENT INJUNCTION HEARING

On February 2, 1966, a permanent injunction hearing was held before Circuit Court Judge HARVIE DU VAL, Miami. This injunction was sought in the name of SAM GREEN for MSNS to regain their phone service which had been disconnected on December 14, 1965, by order of the Attorney General of Florida, EARL FAIRCLOTH.

Judge DU VAL denied the permanent injunction and the phone service of MSNS was not reconnected.

On February 3, 1966, the following article, captioned "Sports Phone Cut is Upheld", appeared in the "Miami Herald" newspaper:

> "Multiple Sports News Service lost its fight Wednesday to regain telephones lost after an FBI raid Nov. 28.
> "After a day-long hearing, Circuit Judge HARVIE DU VAL made permanent his denial of an injunction sought by Multiple Sports to prevent the phones from being removed.
>
> "Attorney General EARL FAIRCLOTH ordered the telephones lines cut Dec. 14 after Judge DU VAL temporarily denied Multiple Sports' request for an injunction to prevent it.
> "The company allegedly supplied bookmakers with betting information from its offices at 1090 NE 79th St., Miami. Listed as a consultant to the company was NORMAN LOUIS (LEFTY) ROSENTHAL, a convicted college basketball fixer.""

C.) ITAR - ITWI VIOLATION

On January 24, 1966, the matter of issuance of search and arrest warrants for SAM GREEN was discussed with the Department of Justice.

The Department advised that should evidence of interstate activity by MSNS be developed subsequent to the disconnect date of the telephones and should evidence be developed showing interstate activity by GREEN, consideration will be given to the issuance of warrants.

TELEPHONE SERVICE

Prior investigation reflects that MSNS formerly used telephone number 754-0637 in carrying on their business activities.

The final billing for this phone is set forth below:

[redacted] was interviewed at his place of employment, J and A Hobbies Shop, 449 Joseph Avenue, Rochester, New York. [redacted] stated he has been receiving college and professional score sheets from the Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, for the past few months. He stated he started receiving these sheets from this company toward the end of the baseball season and for two or three weeks, near the end of the season, received about ten copies each week containing various baseball lineups. He stated he previously obtained these sheets at "World-Wide News," 66 South Avenue, Rochester, New York, but toward the end of the baseball season, he determined that this news stand did not carry these sheets anymore, and decided to order them directly from the publisher. He stated he recalls seeing an advertisement and a coupon which could be used for the purpose of ordering these and he completed the form and requested a subscription. He stated that following the baseball season, he renewed his subscription with this company for sports sheets containing the college and professional lineups for football and subsequently for basketball and hockey.

[redacted] advised these forms are always blank, that they merely contain the dates of the games and indicate the home teams. He stated he never receives any type of information which might be considered a betting "line" or odds from this News Service in Miami, and that he has never had any personal contact or communication with any of these officers or operators of this news service. He stated he receives approximately forty to fifty of these schedules each week, and purchases them for approximately seventeen cents a piece. He said he then resells them for twenty five cents a piece, to anyone entering his store requesting them. He pointed out that most of these people purchasing these, are friends of his. He advised he does not know the purpose for which these people buy these.

[redacted] of "World-Wide News", 66 South Avenue, was interviewed at that address. [redacted] stated that he has been obtaining a type of score sheet from Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, for over a year. He stated he obtains these for the purpose of selling them to customers of his news stand.

He stated that these score sheets contain merely the lineups of college and professional games to be played in football, basketball and hockey. [redacted] stated he has never had any personal contact with any officer or member of Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, and denied knowing any individual connected with that firm. He stated he recalls reading about the News Service and sent a blank form to them sometime ago, requesting a subscription. He pointed out that he gets an eleven or twelve week subscription and pays in advance. In turn, he receives a score sheet every week, containing the principal games and college, football, basketball, hockey and some professional games in these sports, to be played in the ensuing week. He stated he seems to recall seeing an advertisement and coupon in another publication regarding this service and sent this coupon to Multiple Sports News Service for a subscription. He continued that he has obtained these sheets more or less continuously since that time.

[redacted] ointed out that he receives approximately twenty five or thirty of these forms each week and made available one of these to the interviewing Agent. In the fall of 1964, he received a form letter from Multiple Sports News Service of Miami, Florida. In this letter, they explained the charges for their basketball news and schedule which was being issued for 1964 and 1965. He wrote a letter back or filled out an application and sent some money to subscribe to this weekly basketball news and schedule for the season of 1964 and 1965. He was never contacted by an individual from this organization and never received any telephone calls from them. He subscribed to thirty or forty of these basketball news schedules each week. He believed that he sold them for twenty cents each. He never received any line service or any odds but bought these strictly to sell to customers who were interested in basketball games. This basketball news and schedule is the only service that he ever obtained from this organization. This service was terminated at the end of the basketball season in the spring of 1965. He did not subscribe to this service for the basketball season beginning in December of 1965 due to the fact that he obtained the same type of service locally and the local organization would give him credit on any returned merchandise. The Multiple Sports News Service never gave him any credit for any of the publications that he was not able to sell.

No threats, promises, or other inducements were made to him. [redacted] did not desire to furnish a written statement.

[redacted] stated that some time about the first of October, 1965, he saw a football schedule which was put out by Multiple Sports News Service of Florida. He said he does not remember who had this football schedule but it had a coupon attached to it which could be used to subscribe to the schedule. He said that you could only subscribe to a minimum of five schedules per week and the cost was $1.25 per week for these five schedules. There were no point spreads printed in this schedule, only the starting times of the games. [redacted] exhibited one of the schedules which in fact did not contain any point spread. He further advised that the names FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL and SAM GREEN were unfamiliar to him. He did state, however, that approximately one week after he received his first schedule, he called MSNS inquiring if MSNS would be able to furnish their weekly schedules a week in advance. The person who was on the other end of the telephone, who did not identify himself, stated that "You had better talk to Frank," but stated he was not in and would be back in several hours. [redacted] stated he never called back. As of this date, he has received the Number 6 schedule and normally receives this schedule every Monday. [redacted] further advised that he does not receive any "line" information or subscribe or plan to subscribe to any "line" information. At no time has anyone contacted him representing themselves to be from the MSNS.

[redacted] stated that the reason he sent for the literature from MSNS was that two other persons and himself are contemplating on publishing a magazine which will include the weekly schedules of sports events which are in season. He has written to 37 Sports Organizations and Information Bureaus which he obtained in the 1966 edition of Information Almanac Atlas and Yearbook requesting each organization to send him schedules and copies of their news items in an attempt to get some idea as to their set up. The two other persons in this venture are [redacted] and their attorney [redacted] If this deal goes through, [redacted] will be the person from whom the money will be coming from. Approximately 10 sample copies of this magazine have been published at this time. He further advised that it is anticipated that along with the weekly schedules of the sports events, a handicap will be given which will be made up by either himself or with [redacted] and that no outside information will be obtained to ascertain a handicap. In checking with their attorney, the attorney advised that persons will either have to subscribe or buy this magazine at news stands. Also, in talking over this magazine with their attorney, it appears to the attorney that this matter will be legal since the information in their magazine is readily available in other types of media such as radio, newspapers, etc. [redacted] stated that in no way is their magazine attempting to establish "line" in their handicap, which will be published in their magazine, and does not care what the individuals do with it. [redacted] said this will be an all sports magazine and will contain different articles on swimming, horse racing, golf, fishing, hunting, etc. He stated he has contacted numerous individuals in the Pittsburgh area who are quite active in their respective sports and that they have consented to write occasional stories for their magazine. Also, they are going to subscribe to the Western Union for a sports ticker tape. This magazine will be published by the Frediani Printing Company, 1719 Liberty Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., sell for 60¢, and is registered in the State of Pennsylvania, and will be known as Keystone Sports Service, Post Office Box 12346, Pittsburgh, Pa., 15231, and distributed by Triangle News, McKees Rocks, Pa., and the United States mails. [redacted] stated, however, thatnno profit will be realized from the selling price and if

He vaguely recalled the Multiple Sports News Service (MSNS), Miami, Florida. He stated that he was looking for a way to advertise his own business and thought that if he ordered some of the baseball schedules published by the MSNS, stamped his firm name on them, and mail them to his clients, that it would help keep his name before his clients, thereby assuring him of repeat business. [redacted] described his business as mailing material for organizations and groups who do not wish to go to the expense of having their own mailing systems.

[redacted] stated that about one or two years ago he wrote a letter to the MSNS requesting them to send him a sample of their publication. He claimed to receive one sample from them but did not place any order with them realizing that this material was not what he had in mind for his own advertising purposes. As he recalled the material received was simply a schedule of baseball games for the current season.

He does not know anyone at MSNS and had the only one contact through the mail.

[redacted] Newark, New Jersey, who is employed at the [redacted] Company (construction) in Newark, furnished the following information:

While on a vacation in Puerto Rico during the Fall of 1965, [redacted] met one SAM GREENBERG, from Brooklyn, New York. [redacted] mentioned that he was an enthusiastic basketball fan and looked forward to the coming season. He told GREENBERG that it was his custom to attend the games at Madison Square Garden with a group of six or eight friends. He said they usually wagered on the outcome between themselves.

GREENBERG told [redacted] of a weekly schedule of games published by the Multiple Sports News Service in Miami, Florida. It was [redacted] impression that this publication also gave "inside" information regarding the players' condition and other factors which might effect the game. Seeing this as a potential advantage in his friendly betting, [redacted] agreed to subscribe to the publication at a cost of about $116 for the season.

With the arrival of the first mailing, [redacted] was amazed to find not one but 50 copies of the basketball and hockey schedule. He was also disappointed that the sheet did not contain the type information he had anticipated.

[redacted] said the schedules served him little purpose and he usually threw them away. He did not sell them nor did he use them in connection with any bookmaking activity. He has not been solicited by Multiple Sports News Service to renew his subscription nor does he intend to do so.

[redacted] advised that he had been indicted [redacted] for bookmaking in Passaic County and for that reason was reluctant to discuss any of his gambling activities. [redacted] advised, however, that he did not know FRANK ROSENTHAL or SAM GREEN, but he was somewhat familiar with the "Multiple Sports News Service" of Miami, Florida, inasmuch as he had been using a service furnished by this service. He said in October or November of 1965, he purchased a weekly basketball schedule from a newsstand in Paterson, New Jersey, and upon seeing the address of 1835 N.E. 207th Street, North Miami Beach, Florida, on the schedule, he wrote to the service and subscribed to the weekly basketball schedule. Sports Bettor -
SAM WINER,
Miami, Florida

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 5/6/66

SAM WINER, also known as RADIO WINER, who resides at 7545 East Treasure Drive, was interviewed at the Bonfire Restaurant, 1700 - 79th Street. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents, the fact that he did not have to make any statement, and any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to counsel and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements would be made during the course of this interview.

WINER advised that he was 55 years of age, and the owner of the Bonfire Restaurant located on 79th Street, North Bay Village, Florida. He advised that through the years, his restaurant has gotten the reputation of a hangout for sports celebrities. He indicated that during the years he has come in contact and knows most everyone connected with sports in the Miami area.

WINER readily admitted that because of his interest in sporting events, he also is a big bettor on sporting contests. He did reflect that due to the heavy losses he has incurred during the last two football seasons, he now only bets on sporting contests that are on television. He stated the last contest he bet on was a professional basketball game played in March, 1966.

He stated that most of his betting is done with a local bookmaker, JOHN PROKOS. He could not recall his account number but thought it to be either 91 or 93. WINER stated that he settled up with JOHN PROKOS each week, and this was done by JOHN coming to the Bonfire Restaurant. He further stated that PROKOS is considered in the trade as a "gentleman bookmaker", who always honors his obligations. He was certain in his own mind that PROKOS was not involved with any gambling syndicate and was strickly a local bookmaker.

He continued stating that during March, 1966, he had an argument with JOHN PROKOS over a professional basketball game and since that time has not been able to bet with PROKOS. He said that BILLY LEVITT is still clerking for PROKOS, and he is not aware of what relationship CHRIST PROKOS has in the bookmaking office of his brother, JOHN.

WINER related that he was a friend of KEN HANNA, although he never placed any bets with him. He stated that any contact he had with HANNA was to ascertain how HANNA was betting in order that he could enhance his own betting position.

He further stated that he was well acquainted with GIL BECKLEY, although he has not bet with BECKLEY's bookmaking office in over two years. He explained this by stating that it was quite apparent to him that he was being taken by BECKLEY, inasmuch as the line BECKLEY was furnishing him was not in agreement with other lines available in the area. He related that the only contact he has had with BECKLEY in the last two years was just to find out how BECKLEY felt about certain sporting contests. He said it was a known fact that BECKLEY had available to him a tremendous handicapping system.

He further stated that he was acquainted and socially friendly with one MARTY KANE. He stated that it is a known fact that KANE is a bookmaker and worked for the BECKLEY bookmaking office. It was his assumption that since BECKLEY is now out of the country, that BECKLEY's former customers are now betting exclusively with KANE.

He said that MARTY KANE used to frequent the Bonfire Restaurant on a regular basis until KANE's wife caught him fooling around with another woman. Subsequent to this occasion, KANE's wife will not let him go to the Bonfire Restaurant.

WINER stated that during the 1965 Gulfstream Race Track season, he had interceded for KANE with [redacted] [redacted] the security chief. He attributed this to the fact that RYDER was a friend of his, and he was convinced that KANE was in no manner violating the rules of the track and was certainly not bookmaking on the premise.

WINER stated that he feels one individual in particular should draw the attention of the FBI and Department of Justice. He indicated this individual to be FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL. He termed ROSENTHAL as a "real crook" and further added that ROSENTHAL is banned from his restaurant.

WINER said that it is his opinion which is shared by many, that Multiple Sports News Service (MSNS) operated by ROSENTHAL was a mere front for ROSENTHAL and his betting. He amplified these remarks by saying that the line put out by MSNS was not usually a true indication of the difference in teams although it provided ROSENTHAL with a chance to make some "real killings" with bookmakers. WINER indicated that most of the bookmakers in the Miami area would use the line provided by MSNS to open their business and thereafter would adjust their line as to the action they were receiving.

He continued stating that he had never been a customer or subscriber of the services rendered by MSNS although he felt that it was completely controlled by ROSENTHAL and his associates in the Chicago, Illinois area.

WINER stated that there was one telephone in the Bonfire Restaurant which was available to customers and persons connected with the restaurant. He indicated that the restaurant does not open until 5:00 P.M. and because of this, bettors or bookmakers would in no way be able to avail themselves of this telephone. He further stated that he prohibits use of this telephone for bookmaking or gambling purposes.

In conclusion, WINER stated that he was not or never had been a bookmaker and only a bettor on sporting events. He did venture the opinion that there was certainly more money to be made in bookmaking than there was as a bettor. WINER stated that he was well aware of the Federal statutes involving Interstate Gambling Activities and would cooperate with the FBI in any way possible.

He is [redacted] [redacted] firm located at [redacted] Orlando, Florida, however, he spends a good portion of his time at this firm's branch office located on the corner of [redacted] [redacted] Ocala, Florida.

For the past several years he has been receiving football game schedules through the mail from a sports news service located in Miami or Miami Beach, Florida. He does not know how his name got on the mailing list of this service, however, he presumes some unidentified friend of his must have suggested his name for the service, as he, [redacted] does like to bet on football games each season. He said he has never contacted anyone at Multiple Sports News Service, and to the best of his knowledge has never been contacted by any person from that service.

Continuing, [redacted] pointed out that the only publications he has ever received from the Miami service are the football game schedules, and he has never received any "line" information from this source. He used the schedules in making bets on football games with friends, customers and business associates of his, mainly in the Ocala, Florida, area.

He explained that most of the bets he makes on football games are with friends who frequent a popular restaurant in Ocala known as "The Big D." This restaurant was formerly operated by one SAM DANIELS, however, the latter died from a heart attack about three weeks ago, and it is [redacted] understanding that the restaurant is now owned by one [redacted] [redacted] an Ocala millionaire. COMEBACK OF THE YEAR

New York — Roger Maris, baseball's forgotten man last season, will recapture in 1966 much of the glory he knew and has been dubbed "Comback Player of the Year" in a United Press International pre-season survey of 24 baseball writers.

The home run king played in just 46 games in 1965, slugging only eight balls into the stands and registering a meek .239 average. However, the UPI panel of experts believes Roger will rebound from that injury-shortened season and regain the form that enabled him to average 30 round-trippers in eight previous campaigns.

The 31-year-old Yankee rightfielder was named on nine ballots to lead American leaguers and San Francisco's Orlando Cepeda, another former home run champ forced to the sidelines by injuries last season, was picked as the National league's most likely candidate for a comeback of major proportions on six ballots.

Cepeda was a consistent long ball threat for the Giants before a gimpy knee prevented him from appearing in the starting lineup all season long for Manager Herman Franks.

Cincinnati lefthander Jim O'Toole, who fell to a 3-10 mark after averaging 16 wins over a five year span, would also return to his top flight form of the early '60s in the estimation of the board, which gave the 29-year-old hurler five votes.

Los Angeles outfielder Tommy Davis, who broke his ankle early in May and didn't appear in the lineup again until the last day of the season, was next in line with three votes. Other National leaguers mentioned were new Mets Dick Stuart and Ken Boyer, the Phillies' Dick Groat and Clay Dalrymple, Ray Washburn and Tim McCarver of the Cardinals, Houston first baseman Jim Gentile and Chicago righthander Ernie Broglio.

Gary Peters, the White Sox lefty who was a disappointing 10-12 in 1966, was chosen by four writers as the top comeback in the American league with the remainder of votes split between Al Kaline, Bill Monbouquette and Bill Freehan of Detroit, Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, Camilo Pascual of Minnesota, Baltimore's Moe Drabowsky, Wes Stock of Kansas City and Chicago lefthander Juan Pizarro.

Maris gained undying fame in 1961 when he clouted 61 homers to top Babe Ruth's record even if it did take 162 games. Last year, however, Jolly Roger was practically no use to the Yanks, playing in only 46 games, 40 as a starter.

The lefthanded hitting slugger pulled a hamstring muscle the first month of the season while running in the outfield and was lost for 26 games. On June 20 he banged his wrist into an umpire's leg while sliding into home plate and later was operated on to correct the damage.

The Yankees were forgiving when it came time to talk terms and offered Maris a 1966 contract calling for the same $75,000 he played for in 1965.

Maris' dismal season was one of the reasons given for the Yankee skid to sixth place. General Manager Ralph Houk knows that a healthy and happy Maris can make a big difference in the Yankees' future.

DODGERS TO TOUR JAPAN

Tokyo —The Los Angeles Dodgers have been formally invited to make a post-season tour of Japan, Toru Shoriki, owner of the Yomiuri Giants club, said recently on his return from the United States.

Shoriki said a decision on the invitation will be made by the major league club owners at a meeting on May 2 and 3 which will also take up the controversy over the Atlanta Braves' franchise.

If the owners vote acceptance of the invitation, U.S. Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert will accompany the Dodgers, Shoriki said.

The Dodgers played in Japan in 1956.

Shoriki said he also explained a proposal made by his father, Matsutaro Shoriki, owner of the Yomiuri Shimbun and the father of professional baseball in Japan, for a real World Series in the not too distant future between American and Japanese champions.

It was the Yomiuri newspaper's turn last year to invite a major league team to Japan for post-season games. The newspaper, however, rejected the then Baseball Commission Ford Frick's decision to send the Pittsburgh Pirates. Frick said it was the Pittsburgh club's turn to visit Japan.

Frick was displeased and threatened to terminate the arrangement which he made in 1955 with the Yomiuri and Mainichi newspapers to take turns every two years to invite a major league team to Japan.

The Yomiuri newspaper did not think the Pirates would be a good drawing card.
